2. Exhibitor must provide their own tables, chairs, weights, set-ups &/or other materials required by them.
3. Exhibitors are responsible for collecting and reporting their own sales tax (if applicable).
The Town of Hamlin, its employees and the Hamlin Wheel Fest Committee are not responsible for any damages, loss of personal property, personal injury or accidents involving exhibitors or their personnel.
4. The Wheel Fest Committee reserves the right to request removal of any item which in its judgment are in poor taste or do not meet the criteria of the guidelines set forth here.
5. Set up will commence at 7 am Saturday with NO CARS ALLOWED ON THE GROUND if you did not choose to set up on Friday. Friday set up will be starting at 9 am. We suggest strongly that you try to set up Friday as there will be NO vehicles are allowed on the festival grounds Saturday. On Saturday you will be directed where to park and Wheel Fest personnel will help you to your booth like last year. All displays must be set up by 9:45 am.
6. Registration fee is $35 per site and payable by Monday April 17th, 2017. Late registration fee is $50.00 after April 17th. A confirmation will be sent on or before May 19th, 2017. No exhibitors accepted after that date. Limited spaces.
7. Again this year – Non-profits will be asked for a donation for their booth space.
8. Please mail your application to Kathi A. Rickman, 1658 Lake Road, Hamlin, New York 14464. Please include your check, payable to: The Hamlin Wheel Fest.
9. We would like to have one item from every exhibitor to put in the Silent Auction, if possible. Same hours as last year for the Silent Auction, starting at 12-noon and ending at 6pm.

(This year's proceeds of the Silent Auction will go to The Ronald McDonald House)

Return the bottom portion of this application along with payment. Thank you.
