DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

Patty Jo reported about the NYSRPS conference that she and Erin Ladue attended. A baseball coaches meeting kicked off the beginning of teams beginning practice. Spring break camp had the usual number of kids. Revenue for the 2012 year is higher than this time last year. Patty Jo is working on the next brochure and we brainstormed about how to cost effectively get the brochure out to the community. The open Recreation Commissioner position will be advertised in the next brochure.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT:

Big Projects for 2012 were discussed. They include getting the Pony Field in shape, dugouts, bringing in more boys U-12 players, bringing in more Majors players, and working on pitching mounds. It was discussed that baseball umpires should have identifiable shirts while on the field. Patty Jo was asked to look into a possible skateboard class.
